

From Me to You – The Christ Letters for the Second Coming 16

Steadfastness

Saturday, September 14, 2024 12:00pm

1. This month I want to provide a trilogy of letters to the Christ community on the Earth at this time. The topics will be steadfastness, intent, and remembrance. Let us begin with steadfastness.
2. Like all of the myriad of identities one may claim while activating a human body, being Christ is an identity too. It is a true identity and is the only true identity. All other identities are based in separation. Like teenagers who frequently change their identities based on their interests, values, peer community, and what they support or disavow, adults do the same thing but perhaps less frequently. The identity of Christ is an identity based in unity. Unity with everything and everyone with complete neutrality and unconditional love as the guide is a good way to describe Christ experience. There are no two alike as they are extremely individualized. Compare this to the ego's attempt at unity. They do it through conformity and wanting to belong. Even non-conformists are conformists when you take a close look, but not the Christ collective. It realized that the world's identities are something it has outgrown. Christ only conforms to love. It doesn't need or want the world's approval.
3. My topic for this letter is steadfastness. The identity of Christ requires 100% dedication, or the old ways of the mind can creep in. Old relationships with identity and with former friends and co-workers can still knock at the door. But Christ must be steadfast in remembering the new way of the heart, a way that is foreign to the world.
4. In Christ,
Mother Mary

Intent

Saturday, September 14, 2024 4:00pm

1. What is the intent of Christ? It is simply to serve other souls and not necessarily the characters. The characters will benefit from a charged-up soul, but not until they are ready to listen to it. In correlation with September's Steps to Authenticity from Soul in the Driver's Seat, love always goes to the soul. Love always goes to God. What happens to it at that point is not our concern. We bless the soul. We bless God and then we use our faith, and trust in the most benevolent outcomes which will directly impact the character if they will only allow it. Until that day arrives the gift of Christ will simply wait, indefinitely if need be.
2. The intent of God is to support itself. It is that simple and it is that hard. God is activating some tough-cookie types of characters out there and needs the cavalry, so to speak. A tiny drop of God energy in the form of a soul simply won't cut it with so many of the world's characters, who are completely engaged in the illusion. No. It needs help. It needs our help now that it is increasingly available. Before now there wasn't enough God energy to help poor souls. The phrase 'poor souls' actually means impoverished souls without nutrients to sustain themselves and grow into Christ.
3. Compare the intent of Christ with the intent of the ego. While Christ only wants to serve God, the ego only wants to serve itself. It wants attention, favors, gifts, and most importantly it wants validation. Christ only wants to give unconditional love to itself. It is already validated. After all, Christ is the only real thing here.
4. In Christ,
Mother Mary

Remembrance

Saturday, September 14, 2024 8:00pm

1. Dearest Christ Community,
2. Will you always remember that you are Christ, God in form? Of course not. When you are present and giving love to whatever has presented itself in front of you, you will be focused on that, whatever it may be. It may be flipping pancakes, changing a dirty diaper, or creating a spreadsheet. It may be listening to a friend's concerns or driving someone across town. It could be millions of different things that you will be focused on in your daily lives. But the one thing that I ask of you is to remember to practice the Holy Instant as often as you can for as long as you can. See yourself surrounded by light and consumed by it. Then you will remember who you truly are. You are a member of the Christ Community and nothing less.
3. We will commune again in two months' time. See you at the end of November.
4. In Christ and as one Unified body,
Mother Mary
